

A. Enchanted Clay - MakerspaceJanet Whitehead

Friday April 7 6-8 pm Adult and Child Fee $ - suggestion?-
(will donate my time to fundraising for pottery studio)

Max 5 parent and child registrations (10 people) IF workshop room is available?
Otherwise Max 4 parent and child registrations (8 people)
Materials and supplies - $35

Janet has a history of being inundated with faeries and other enchanted beings in her pottery studio - to the point of now having a published memoir 'Beyond All Imaginings' that tells that crazy, but true, story. Adults are invited to bring a child and each sculpt their own personal magical character. Your artwork will then go through the drying and kiln firing process, ready for you to pick up and finish with paints, stains, or leave as is.

~~~~

B. Clay Alchemy 101 - Makerspace*Janet Whitehead

May 5 - June 10 Max 6 people
(will donate a portion of my time to fundraising for pottery studio)

This course is an introduction to basics of pottery and includes the opportunity to sculpt, slab build, wheel throw and take home finished pieces.

FEE: $ __?_ I would normally charge $275, included clay and glazes. Open to suggestions

May 5 evening WEEK 1 Intro to clay process, sculpture Friday May 5 evening

- Intro to clay process: types of clays, thrown or hand built, stage of clay in process, glazes, firing process.
- Must knows of building i.e.: how not to have your piece blow up in the kiln.
- Hand build first piece. Technique optional: rolling, sculpting, pinch pot, coiling.
- Terminology Handout - ... so you can sound clay smart.
- Demo Throwing

WEEK 2. Build Slab and wheel*Friday May 12 evening

- Participants will build a slab box, alternating with throwing a piece on the pottery wheel.

WEEK 3 - Finishing*Friday May 19 evening

- Trimming wheel thrown pieces
- Throwing handle
- Finishing boxes.

WEEK 4 ( two weeks later)*Saturday June 10 morn or eve.

- Glazing all pieces
- Intro to Kiln

LATER:

- Pick up finished pieces. Likely sign up for membership so they can continue!